DONUT AND HORIZON

YUI KUGIMIYA

The motion of the figure is from right to left, far to near. The figure appears from a vanishing point. He is walking over the horizon and towards us. He is headed to a donut shop. The time might be in the morning or late afternoon. Donut is one of the most popular breakfast or dessert and it goes great with coffee. (If there was a blank piece of paper and if there were a donut and a horizontal line on it, that could look like a landscape. I think that could also look like a person on a bed.)

I am not sure if he is getting donuts not just for himself but also for friends or he had tremendous cravings for donuts that he is going to eat so many of them by himself, but either way, here he goes order donuts.....Apple orchard, marble frosted, chocolate sprinkle, French coolers, coconut, giants, jets, jelly, strawberry sprinkle, boston cream, blueberry cake, glazed cake stick....."
